RESPONSIVE SERVICE.

Leader:

We have met together, our Heavenly Father, to study and to discover the truth of history. Keep out of our hearts all bitterness—knowing that bitterness engenders strife; keep out of our minds all narrowness, knowing that narrowness weakens character; keep out of our hearts all injustice, knowing that injustice is sinful.

May we measure ourselves by Thy measurnig rod, and give to all their due, fully, freely and fairly.

All:

Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle?

Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

He that slandereth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his friend, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor.

In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt and changeth not.

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent.

He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Leader:

Let the words of our mouths, and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, our Rock and our Redeemer. Amen.

"MARS ROBERT IS ASLEEP."

(By Miss S. B. Valentine, Richmond, Va., May, 1883.)

(The following verses are based on incident of the War between the States which Gen. B. D. Fry, of the Confederate Army, related to the author, Miss Valentine.

Gen. Lee sorely fatigued by a hard day's march, lay down on a log beside the road and quickly fell asleep. Soon a column of soldiers came down the road, laughing and talking as they marched along. A burly trooper who had been standing guard by the General's improvised couch, rushed out into the road and whispered, "Hush, Mars Robert's asleep!"

The word passed down the line and the ranks, instantly subdued, tip-toed past their sleeping leader.)

Had you heard the distant tramping
On that glowing summer day!
Had you seen our comrades running
To meet us on the way:
Oh, the wondrous, sudden silence,
Th' unmilitary creep,
As down the line that caution ran,
"Mars Robert is asleep!"

Give me your hand, Old Blue Coat,
Let's talk of this awhile;
For the prettiest march of all the war
Was this of rank and file;—
Was the passing of that army,
When 'twas hard, I ween, to keep
Those men from crying out "Hurrah!
Mars Robert is asleep!"

There lay that knightly figure,
One hand upon his sword,
The other pressed above his heart,
A vow without a word!
Two laurel leaves had fluttered down,
For flowers their virgils keep,
And chowned him, though I think they knew
"Mars Robert was asleep!"

In glorious old Westminster
No monument of war,
No marble story half so grand
As this our army saw.
Our leafy old Westminster—
Virginia's woods—now keep
Immortal that low whisper,
"Mars Robert is asleep!"

As we clasp hands, old Blue Coat,
List Brother of the North:
Had foreign foes assailed your homes,
You then had known his worth!
Unbroken virgil o'er those homes
It had been his to keep;
Step lightly o'er the border then—
"Mars Robert is asleep!"

He's yours and mine is Robert Lee,
He's yours and mine, hurrah!
These tears you've shed have sealed
the past,
And closed the wound of war!
These clasping hands, old Blue Coat,
We'll swear by the tears you weep,
The sounds of war shall be muffled—
"Mars Robert is asleep!"

Cover them over with beautiful flowers;
Deck them with garlands these brothers of ours,
Lying so silent by night and by day,
Sleeping the years of their manhood away;
Cover them over—yes, cover them over—
Parent and husband and brother and lover:
Crown in your heart these dead heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers.
